INTRODUCE 'PAY WHAT YOU CAN' NIGHT

Take a chance on Shakespeare with GSC and the Surrey Advertiser.

If you're aged between 16 and 25, a student or Jobseeker, Guildford Shakespeare Company have teamed up with Surrey Advertiser to give you the opportunity to experience a unique performance of Shakespeare for a price you can afford.

On Tuesday 14th February a limited number of 50 tickets for Richard III will be set aside as 'Pay What You Can'. There is no limit to the amount you pay for your ticket, you simply pay whatever you can afford!

Producer Matt Pinches commented:

"Guildford Shakespeare Company is committed to providing excellent, professional theatre for everyone in Guildford, but we are aware from research that there are those who not in a position to see our work.

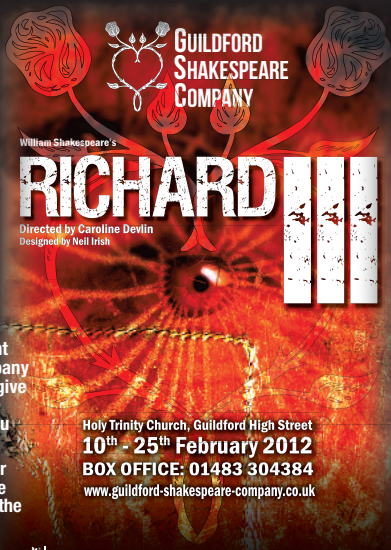

We understand that trying something for the first time can be a little daunting, especially Shakespeare, and in these financially delicate times, if you don't think you're going to like it, you don't want to waste your money.

Therefore we're thrilled to be able to offer this fabulous opportunity for people to experience our exhilarating and exciting take on Shakespeare at price they can afford. We guarantee they won't be disappointed!"

The "Pay What You Can" (PWYC) night is supported by The National Lottery through Arts Council England and the Surrey Advertiser.
